

LSNJ PROTECT

A Legal Assistance Program for Victims of Trafficking

Toll Free 1-844-LSNJ-PROTECT

(1-844-576-5776)

You may be a victim of human trafficking if you:

- Cannot come and go as you wish.
- Are 18 and under and providing sex for money.
- Are paid little or not at all for your work.
- Are not allowed breaks at work.
- Were offered a job through false promises.
- Have no control over your money.
- Cannot speak for yourself.
- Do not have your ID or passport and you cannot get it back.
- Are told when to eat or sleep.
- Owe someone a lot of money and cannot pay it off.
- Are afraid of being reported to immigration or the police.

Are you a trafficking victim?

Human trafficking is the illegal trade or use of a person against their will for the purpose of forced labor or sexual exploitation.

See back for ways that LSNJ PROTECT can assist you.

Do you know you may have the right to?

- Apply for immigration status
- Obtain an order of protection
- Get payment for unpaid work
- Clear your criminal record
- Apply for public benefits
- Receive compensation if you are a victim of crime

Legal Services of New Jersey (LSNJ) is a non-profit organization that provides free legal advice and representation to victims of human trafficking.

CALLS ARE CONFIDENTIAL
LSNJ PROTECT
Toll Free 1-844-LSNJ-PROTECT
(1-844-576-5776)

In case of an emergency, please call 911. NJ Human Trafficking Hotline 1-855-END-NJ-HT
The National Human Trafficking Hotline 1-888-373-7888.