CONGRATULATIONS!

Your employer has joined the Kean Educational Affiliation Network, connecting you to exclusive benefits for enrolling in the most affordable comprehensive university in New Jersey.

Why Kean?

Kean takes tremendous pride in a 160-year history of educating students and continues to offer high-demand programs that prepare students for careers in the new global economy. Kean offers over 50 undergraduate degree programs and more than 80 graduate options, including doctoral degrees, professional diplomas, master's degrees and state certification programs.

In today's increasingly complex, diverse and technological world, professionals and students alike are looking to enhance their skills, start a new and rewarding career, or simply advance within their current organizations. Others strive to be resilient in a tough economy, improve their job security, or safeguard a secure future for their families. But one constant remains — the power of a world-class education.

The gateway to a world-class education is not a world away, but right here at Kean. We understand the importance of balancing education with work and family responsibilities. As a true world University, we offer programming in five locations, giving you the option to study where and when it's convenient for you:

Kean is committed to providing students a world-class education
without a first-class price.

As a member of the Kean Educational Affiliation Network,
you have exclusive access to valuable opportunities:
